Prebable press questions:

Do you favor or eppese one or two er any "watch dog" committees?

What is your position regarding the Clark Task Force recommendation for a joint Congressional and distinguished private citizens "watch and dog "group?

What is your position re two "watch dog" groups as recommended by the Commission?

What "internal reorganization" of CIA is necessary to have CIA " produce greater emphasis on certain of its basic statutory functions"?

Wherein is CIA failing in its basic function of praducing intelligence on the USSR?

Where has CIA failed in "greater concentration on the collection of information about tehhnological and military developments and plans of 'our primary target' the Seviet bloc?

Why has CTA not been "bold" enough and what limits its "freedom of action" that causes "deficiencies in this Country's knowledge of Communist plans"? Why has CTA been "too conservative" and lacked taking "vigorous and timely action in the field" of cellecting intelligence?

Why has CIA been subordinated in its intelligence collection by "diplomacy" or State Dept. viewpoints--why does CIA fear or give way to "diplomatic or even protocol complications"?

Why is CIA so administered it cannot fully and effectively earry out the authority the law gives it and efficiently use the organization it "has so soundly conceived"?

What is the reason for the "desk level" attitude that "stifles initiative and action in the collection of intelligence"?

Why is the Soviet intelligence more bold, more willing to accept xalcutaed political and diplomatic risks to get results